

DCS200SF

Digital Conference Systems Software

This advanced DCS series digital system of the LUCASACS brand is very suitable for various types of meetings, including voting, conference entry and video monitoring. PC software includes the following function, this special software can only be used in this digital system and it is a unique system.

Line Detection

The operator can check the microphone connection status in the system. The system will automatically show the results after click line detection.

System setting

You can adjust basic settings, video setting, venue configuration, sub screen setting, etc. Contains.

Start Conference

The operator can control the conference overflow, login, voting, documents and screenshot.

Preparation

Add conference title/proposal/delegate data setting.

Post Conference

The operator can save and print the conference report; Managing conference data is easy. Apart from this, it can be integrated with many audio and video systems.